AUGUST is Membership and Extension Month.

Rotary in Ukraine

Twenty years ago, six clubs -- three in the United States, two in Canada, and one in Scotland -- helped charter the Rotary Club of Kyiv, the first in Ukraine. Now the country has more than 40 clubs and many Rotaractors. At a recent event, Rotarians instrumental in bringing Rotary to Ukraine celebrated.

The above item appeared in Rotary International Weekly updates. So why have I repeated it here? You will need to turn to page 14 to see why it is so co-incidental.

I have recently seen some interesting statistics about membership in various countries.

Who would have thought that there were only 4 589 Rotarians in South Africa? One can interpret that in two ways – either people here are not interested OR there is HUGE potential for growth! I have to believe that the second statement is the one that applies to South Africa. As things stand now when D9370 sees the light of day on 1st July 2013, following the merger of D9320 and D9270 there will be >100 clubs and > 2 000 members. These members will make up 46% of the Rotarians in South Africa. Where will this new District end up in a years time?

The challenge remains for each one of us to continue to strive to gain new members, not because we need to grow our membership to a specific figure – No, simply because it is the right thing to do.

If we continue to have FUN and get ENJOYMENT from being a ROTARIAN, why shouldn't we be extending an invitation to the others out there who would certainly be able to add value to Rotary.

Show me someone out there who doesn't get that warm fuzzy feeling when they are involved in doing something good in the World for the benefit of mankind. There are many who would love to be involved – find them!! I have also included an article about Fellowship in Rotary E-clubs – we do have several opportunities to have fellowship and FUN.

Have Fun

Gerald Sieberhagen - Editor

Please remember that it is the responsibility of each Rotarian to introduce prospective Rotarians.

Rotarians should always be on the lookout for suitable projects that would be suitable for our E-Club to undertake.

Awarding and being awarded a Paul Harris Fellowship is always a very special occasion. And so it was when John Fannin handed over a PHF to a deserving recipient – Karin Hubbard. The presentation took place at Siyabonga Care Centre near Vredenburg.

A few of Karin's friends were invited to the ceremony, some of whom had been her patients in wheelchairs. Sandra Richards PHF read the citation and John Fannin did the presentation.

The Rotary E-club of South Africa D9270 salutes a worthy recipient of a Paul Harris Fellowship.

District Governor Richard Brooks and Sonia paid their Official Visit to our Club on Monday 13th August 2012.

We had an excellent attendance of 35 Rotarians, guests and STEP YE students and their parents to welcome DG Richard & Sonia to our club.

In his address to our members, DG Richard IV mentioned that all the DG visits this year had some significance as they would be the last official visit to our Club in District 9270. As you may all know by know, from 1st July 2013 our District will merge with our neighboring district to form a new District 9370 with >100 clubs and >2 000 members.

Among other things, DG Richard then challenged us to achieve the Presidential Citation and was pleased to hear that our Club had already achieved all but one of the requirements to achieve the citation.

He reminded us about RI Sakuji Tanaka's theme of PEACE THROUGH SERVICE and encouraged us to find ways of ensuring that our actions and projects contribute towards creating PEACE.

Membership was another item that DG Richard touched on, well more than just 'touched on'. He emphasized the huge importance of membership and complimented our club on our membership growth.

The need to continue to make contributions to the Rotary Foundation through Annual Giving and PolioPlus funds remained a priority.

WITH PEACE THROUGH SERVICE BEING OUR THEME HERE ARE A FEW ITEMS FROM ROTARY INTERNATIONAL WEBSITE.

PEACE THROUGH SERVICE

Combat the root causes of conflict through service

Disease, illiteracy, hunger, poverty, and scarcity of environmental resources are all underlying causes of conflict and war. Consider drawing on the expertise of partners to undertake a project that addresses these problems. For example:

- Work with Rotarian Action Groups dedicated to promoting health fairs, blood donation, blindness prevention, and dentistry to build goodwill by bringing health care to communities in need.
- Partner with an International Literacy Association reading council and foster more just and peaceful societies by empowering others to read and write.
- Support sustainable programs that fight hunger. Consider working with the Rotarian Action Group for the Alleviation of Hunger & Malnutrition and The Global FoodBanking Network.
- Promote economic development in poor communities by creating access to financial services. Work with the Rotarian Action Group for Microcredit and learn how to fight poverty through small loans.
- Join the Environment Fellowship of Rotarians and learn how to protect and share the earth's finite natural resources.

Participate in an upcoming Rotary Global Peace Forum

Rotary International will hold three Rotary Global Peace Forums this year. Each forum is a two- or three-day program that engages and inspires Rotarians and community leaders to work toward Peace Through Service.

Visit the peace forum websites below for additional information:

- Berlin, Germany | Peace Without Borders | 30 November-2 December 2012
- Honolulu, Hawaii, USA | The Green Path to Peace | 25-27 January 2013
- Hiroshima, Japan | Peace Begins with You | 17-18 May 2013

If Rotarians in your club cannot attend, consider organizing a peace forum in your local community. Consult the Rotary Global Peace Forums brochure for ideas.

Peace activities for Rotary clubs and districts.

There are many activities that your club or district can undertake locally to promote Peace Through Service in 2012-13.

District Peace Awards.

District governors are encouraged to confer district peace awards on clubs that undertake a successful peace forum or peace-related project during 2012-13. RI will provide an award template that governors can use to recognize clubs that have made positive contributions to peace during the year.

- Hold a club or district peace forum. Organize a forum in your community and invite non-Rotarians to participate. Consider some of the following suggested themes and emphases:

- Hold your forum in the same week as one of the three Rotary Global Peace Forums and mirror its theme.

- Focus on urban peace by discussing opportunities for conflict mediation and resolution.

- Invite marginalized groups in your community, such as ethnic or religious minorities, to attend the forum and forge new friendships and partnerships.

- Collaborate with local organizations on a joint project to promote peace and conflict prevention in the community.

- Hold a forum that directly involves Rotaractors, Interactors, Youth Exchange students, and RYLA participants, and that challenges them to promote peace in their everyday lives.

- Discuss and share strategies for helping young people deal with common sources of conflict, such as gang violence and bullying.

- Recognize immigrants who have made a difference in your community.

- Organize a community peace forum. Partner with your local municipalities and other community institutions to undertake a public event or celebration that symbolizes your club's dedication to advancing world understanding and peace. Discuss issues related to urban peace and safe communities and schools.

- Establish an international twin club partnership. Promote world understanding and peace by forming a relationship with a Rotary club in another country. Twin club partnerships have the potential to break down barriers between countries that are experiencing or have experienced political or civic tensions. If you have an established twin club partnership, consider undertaking a joint project to promote peaceful relations between your countries.

Learn more at www.rotary.org/makeconnections.

- Sponsor a Rotary Peace Fellow. Up to 100 peace fellowships are offered annually on a world-competitive basis for study at the Rotary Peace Centers. Rotary Peace Fellows are tomorrow's leaders who will promote national and international cooperation, peace, and the resolution of conflict throughout their lives, in their careers and through service activities.

- Support a service project that addresses the root causes of conflict. Disease, illiteracy, hunger, poverty, and scarce environmental resources are all underlying causes of conflict and war. Develop a project that addresses one or more of these issues in your community, or collaborate with a club in another country on an international project to consider adopting these recommended activities and including peace in their service priorities for the year.

District governors are also encouraged to make peace one of the main topics of discussion at the district conference.

Consider planning a peace activity in conjunction with World Understanding and Peace Day, 23 February, 2013 Rotary's 108TH anniversary.

Would you like to be recognized at the 2013 RI Convention in Lisbon?

Governors are asked to provide a brief description of their district's best club peace activity throughout the year. Selected activities will be highlighted on www.rotary.org. One outstanding club peace activity will be chosen from all descriptions received by 15 April 2013 to be recognized on stage at the 2013 RI Convention in Lisbon, Portugal.

Hiroshima, Japan

Peace Begins with You

17-18 May 2013

Explores ways in which each of us has the power to promote peace in our daily lives and in our own communities. This future-focused meeting will ask participants to consider what impact they will make in the days and years to come.

I was in the six item express lane at the store quietly fuming. Completely ignoring the sign, the woman ahead of me had slipped into the check-out line pushing a cart piled high with groceries. Imagine my delight when the cashier beckoned the woman to come forward looked into the cart and asked sweetly, "So which six items would you like to buy?"
Wouldn't it be great if that happened more often?

Because they had no reservations at a busy restaurant, my elderly neighbour and his wife were told there would be a 45-minute wait for a table. "Young man, we're both 90 years old," the husband said. "We may not have 45 minutes." They were seated immediately.

Women and cats will do as they please, and men and dogs should relax and get used to the idea.

Fellowship the Rotary e-club way

26 May 2010

by Angus M Robinson, Past President, Rotary E-Club One

According to the 'New King James' and 'Authorised Version' bibles of the Christian faith, the words, 'contribution, fellowship, sharing and communion' are words translated from the Greek word 'koinonia'.

Koinonia is also translated as 'communication' and 'communicate' in other passages. The English words 'fellowship' and 'communion' express the relationship of the parties involved while the English words 'contribution, sharing, communication and communicate' express the action that is involved in the relationship.

In 1911 Rotary Founder Paul Harris, when commenting on the 'fellowship' relationship, said: "Life in Rotary should consist of a rational mixture of business with civic activities and good fellowship".

Some years later (in 1939), he spoke about fellowship in the context of 'friendliness' which he claimed, "is the motive power of Rotary".

Harris said, "Friendliness is more powerful and smooth running than any Diesel engine ever built. Friendliness is a virtue in its own right; it begets others as well. Neighbourliness, kindness, tolerance, and usefulness are children of friendliness; they attack enemies of the social order, not only banishing care, worry, envy, greed, suspicion, fear, and anger, but also stimulating hope and courage. They are the solvents of labour problems and, given a chance would be solvents of international problems as well."

And during the height of World War II, Paul Harris linked 'fellowship' with the concept of 'service' stating that, "Rotary's most glamorous purpose is to foster international understanding and good will, and during our many years of experimentation we have accumulated considerable knowledge on that baffling subject. We have actually succeeded in creating a world-wide fellowship of business and professional people united in the ideal of service. Our membership includes representatives of more than 50 countries and devotees of practically all of the major religious faiths and most of the political ideologies. We have been able to accomplish this by adhering strictly to the one matter in hand and avoiding all others."

Over the ensuing years, Rotarians (now some 1.2 million across the world) through the agendas of their weekly meetings, have embodied these two concepts as essential ingredients. How often are we used to hearing the Club President say? "Let's take a break from our proceedings to enjoy some fellowship".

For many Rotarians, this commitment to regular weekly attendance to combine fellowship and service has led to a passion for achieving a 100% attendance record. Translating all of this to the new e-club operating environment presents some interesting challenges and parallels.

Central to the success of the e-club operating mode, it is fair to say in summary that the facility serves a much needed meeting place for committed Rotarians to be connected, informed and inspired, using only those information and communication technologies (ICTs) that best enable them to deliver 'Service Above Self' in an environment that is different from the weekly 'face to face' meeting.

It is this difference that often causes Rotarians unfamiliar with being connected online to ask how fellowship can be achieved if there is no 'face to face' contact? That is like asking a sight impaired person how effective 'one to one' communication can be achieved where there is no visual contact, or like asking a daughter whether the daily phone call with her mother counts as 'keeping in touch'.

As it happens, whereas online members do not connect weekly 'face to face', they are regularly connecting and conversing more often than not daily by email! Supplemented by regular webinars and interaction by 'blogging' in the clubhouse, regular and vigorous intra-personal communication is very much alive and well.

Based on my own personal experience over the past seven years as a member of Rotary E-Club One (a club now with 56 members residing in nine countries straddling the geographic provenances of North America, UK/Europe/Asia, Africa and Australia), I have got to know my fellow Rotarians with whom I communicate electronically on a daily basis far better than with those I met reasonably regularly when I was previously a member of a traditional Rotary club.

And a fascinating consequence of this new form of fellowship is that when I have had the opportunity to have met 'face to face' my fellow correspondents in person at a Rotary International Convention (the location of our club's Annual Dinner), I have found them to be exactly as I have known them through the electronic relationship – good and worthy friends through and through. This has also been the experience of others in Rotary E-Club One.

Of course our Annual Dinner is a very special feature of our collective experience as participants of the RI Convention. But our club also organizes the manning (in collaboration with our very good friends of the Rotary E-Club of Latino America and the Rotary E-Club of London Centenary) of a shared exhibition booth within the RI 'House of Friendship'. Apart from the comradeship shared with other e-club Rotarians, we all have the chance to share fellowship with so many other RI Convention attendees from all around the world. And quite a few of those Rotarians who drop in to say "hello" are regular users of our club web site, a valued facility which provides them with an information-rich make-up experience.

Many of our members are frequent travellers (hence their reason for becoming Rotary e-club members) and invariably they make-up at a wide range of traditional clubs within their own home countries or overseas. Moreover, in Rotary E-Club One, some of our longer-standing members (myself included) have made special side trips or arranged stopovers to meet up with fellow club members en route whilst engaged in overseas business trips.

In regard to make-ups, for my own part, since joining Rotary E-Club One, whenever I have been in Australia's national capital on business, I have been a very regular visitor to the Rotary Club of Canberra East. As a result of this very special relationship, I have had the pleasure to get to know many fine and motivated Rotarians in another (and in this case, traditional) Rotary club - this has resulted in both our clubs co-funding a number of International Service projects, including one in Afghanistan (a project in which the Rotary Club of Canberra East played a key hands-on role), and another in Cambodia (contributing to our current Rotary E-Club One President's major project of the year).

Three friends from the local congregation were asked, "When you're in your casket, and friends and congregation members are mourning over you, what would you like them to say?"

Artie said, "I would like them to say I was a wonderful husband, a fine spiritual leader, and a great family man."

Eugene commented, "I would like them to say I was a wonderful teacher and servant of God who made a huge difference in people's lives.."

Al said, "I'd like them to say, 'Look, he's moving!'"

Huang is choice for 2014-15 RI president

Rotary News -- 7 August 2012

Gary C.K. Huang is the choice for 2014-15 RI president.

Gary C.K. Huang, a member of the Rotary Club of Taipei, Taiwan, is the selection of the Nominating Committee for President of Rotary International in 2014-15. Huang will become the president-nominee on 1 October if there are no challenging candidates.

Huang says his vision for Rotary is to increase membership to more than 1.3 million.

"To increase our membership, we must go beyond borders to wherever we see growth potential, such as the countries of China, Mongolia, and Vietnam. I will put an emphasis on increasing female and younger members," Huang says. "I will also encourage former Rotarians to once again be part of our Rotary family."

Huang has served as the chair of Taiwan Sogo Shinkong Security Co., Ltd., Shin Kong Life Real Estate Service Co., and P.S. Insurance Agency, Inc. and director of Federal Corporation and managing director of Taipei Life-Line Association.

He is a past president of Malayan Overseas Insurance Co. and charter secretary general of the Council for Industrial and Commercial Development in Taiwan.

A Rotarian since 1976, Huang has served as RI vice president, director, Rotary Foundation trustee, district governor, International Assembly training leader, regional session leader, task force member and coordinator, and committee member and chair.

Convener of the 2000 Hong Kong, 2011 Kuala Lumpur, 2002 Manila, and 2003 Singapore Rotary Institutes, he also served as chair of the 2002 Taipei Presidential Conference. He is chair of the Council of Past District Governors in Taiwan.

Huang created 19 new clubs in 1986-87 as governor of District 345, which included Hong Kong, Macau, and Taiwan.

Huang has been awarded the National Civic Service Award by the Federation of Non-Profit Associations and the Outstanding Community Service Award by the Ministry of the Interior, R.O.C. He is a recipient of the RI Service Above Self Award and the Rotary Foundation's Citation for Meritorious Service.

Huang and his wife, Corinna Yao, have three children.

HERE IS A WHEELCHAIR REQUEST RECEIVED BY JENETH VAN LEEUWEN

I have a close friend who works as a Psychologist at the Stanger hospital on a part-time basis and through her, the plight of this family came to my attention and we both feel that we need to try and find a way to help this family which I will tell you more about shortly. Bev has always been driven to helping the community so besides her own practice in Kensington Drive, Durban North she works at the Stanger hospital once a week.

She has been working with the Bansi family who reside in Stanger for a while now. Their boy, Nikhil, now just 10 years old was born with complete cerebral palsy. Nikhil cannot propel himself at all and has only slight movement in one hand only. His mother and father were young when he was born and his mother has dedicated her life solely to looking after him as he needs full time care. His father has spent many hours carrying this little boy around and this too has meant that he has only ever had piece work, as and when he can get work. He is a tiler by trade. This family has no support from their extended family and relies on the community for help even in supplying food on some nights.

Both have felt the responsibility weighing heavily on their family and for 10 years have committed their lives to caring for Nakhil. Only recently did they have a second baby, in good health.

The biggest challenge is getting Nikhil anywhere, as they carry him for miles to catch a taxi, even to the hospital. As he is getting bigger it is becoming harder and harder for them. Nikhil needs a specialized wheelchair (buggy) but they have no means to provide this, as they live on the bread line already.

My appeal to you is to request assistance from Rotary to purchase a suitable wheelchair. Bev has gone to lengths to get a quote for the correct chair for his needs and with the aid of photographs, measurements and taking into consideration the disability of this boy, she has obtained a quotation from Shonaquip (www.shonaquip.co.za), based in Cape Town, who specialize in building the chair to the required medical needs of the patient, as for him not any wheel chair will suffice. The quotation is for R11 046.60

I really would like to bring this case of dire need to the attention of your Rotary club, and request your favourable consideration of assistance to make this family's life a little easier than it has been for the past 10 years. Please let me know your thoughts and if you need further information I would be able to put you in touch with Bev Miles, registered psychologist, who deals with this family.

This case touched my heart and I hope there is a way we can help them.

Love

Wendy [Godmother of Marc van Leeuwen]

A SUCCESSFUL WHEELCHAIR HAND OVER.

Following a report in the Highway Mail, we delivered some East Coast Radio Winter Warmth blankets to the Senzokuhle Home Based Care Organisation which is based at Kenneth Gardens in Umbilo.

Irene established that there was a need for a wheelchair.

One of the wheelchairs that we had received from the last District Consignment was allocated. We have already handed over 9 wheelchairs this year. TOTAL = 61 to date.
